JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

SEVENTEEN IS AWFULLY YOUNG

The Eliots (mother-Kareen Dagle, Jan-Carolyn Coghlan, Nicki-Judy Hall, and Albert-Roger Moorehead) have just moved from Knoxville to What Cheer and Jan is in revolt. At Knoxville she had been chosen the most attractive girl of the year. Enrolling in What Cheer was quite a let-down until she met Jack Westmore (Charles Kitzman). Nicki saw him too, but Nicki ran into her little corner. Miss Tilby (Beverly Witt), a school teacher, came along. The whole situation dissolves into a tussle between brawn, beauty and brains. Brains win out, but Goofer (Pat Clerkin), the football hero and double crossing Jan who would do anything to keep Jack Westmore provide plenty of "Oomph." Oh, yes, we must not forget Thaddeus (Richard Spain) with his lizard, white rats, and fleas and Albert who likes jam sandwiches. Also in the play were Nancy Coble as Caroline Pratt and Larry Walker as Whitcomb Pewberry.
